MASS MEDIA DEPARTMENT, ST. ANTHONY'S COLLEGE SHILLONG

Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between

The Northeast India AV Archive

And

The Book Café

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is entered into by The Northeast India Audiovisual (NEIAV) Archive represented by Rev. Br. Dr. Albert L. Dkhar, Principal and Secretary, Governing Body, St. Anthony's College and The Book Café, (Aizawl) represented by Vanlalruata Ralte. Both parties understand the purpose of the MoU, and the objectives and responsibilities that they share in order to realise (subject to renewal) the goals of the collaboration between them, to collect and share audiovisual material. This MoU is valid for a period of one year, effective from 1st December 2023 to 1st December 2024.

Each party may terminate this MoU within thirty days after written notice, without legal liabilities.

A. Mission

1. The NEIAV Archive, Department of Mass Media, St. Anthony's College

The NEIAV Archive is a public audiovisual archive located in the Department of Mass Media, St. Anthony's College. It is supported by the Sasakawa Peace Foundation and the Department of Tourism, Government of Meghalaya. The NEIAV Archive is part of the Sasakawa Peace Foundation's project entitled, 'Preserving the Memories of Northeast India.' The NEIAV Archive collects, digitises and preserves audiovisual materials - photographs, videos, audio recordings, films and other significant documents which possess historical and academic importance, with an aim to understand more deeply the journey, the sojourns, and the evolution of the communities in Northeast India through the spans of time, their history and culture, and the changes that occurred in them. The NEIAV Archive strives to revive lost memories and those which are in the process of being forgotten, by being a repository of heritage and legacy. Therefore, another one of the important aims of the NEIAV Archive is to share their vision with a wider audience, specially the youth, students and scholars, which is evident in their effort to make the archive a more accessible space, and the various exhibitions and film screenings that they regularly organise.

2. The Book Café , Aizawl

The Book Café Aizawl is a private owned enterprise registered under the Aizawl Municipal Corporation and located at Hrangbana Business House in Chanmari locality in Aizawl. The Book Café Aizawl came into being with the purpose of reviving reading culture among the youth and to provide a platform for writers and artists. To put it in simpler words, it is a bookshop and a coffee shop. The Book Café has a reading section where unlike a traditional library the books are not for rent. The reading section provides free reading for our customers only. The Café aims to provide a platform for writers by organizing poetry competitions, poetry readings, book talks and conversation with writers and authors. The Book Café Aizawl also has a book club called "The Grimm Readers" where we have around a hundred members. Our members comprise of seasoned writers as well as young scholars from colleges and literature clubs. The Club also organises book readings and book talks with authors.

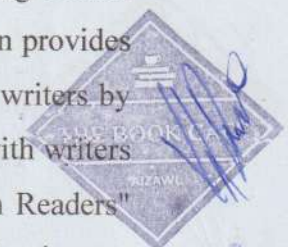

B. Objectives

1. Phase-I: The NEIAV Archive and The Book Café, Aizawl, will share collected audiovisual materials for public access, as per the permission granted by the contributors.
2. Phase-II: The NEIAV Archive and The Book Café, Aizawl, will collect audiovisual materials from the north-eastern state of Mizoram, as far as financial resources permit.

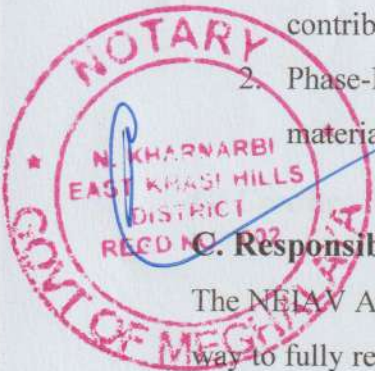

C. Responsibilities

The NEIAV Archive and The Book Café, Aizawl will coordinate their activities in such a way to fully realise the objectives of the MoU.

1. The NEIAV Archive and The Book Café, Aizawl, will actively collect audiovisual materials from the northeastern state of Mizoram, India.
2. The NEIAV Archive will be responsible for digitising all audiovisual materials collected by both parties.
