

A brief report of the ‘Felicitation programme of Ms Angelia N Marweñ’ held on 2nd September, 2024 from 12:00 to 01:00 PM in the College Auditorium

St. Anthony’s College, Shillong on 2nd September, 2024 felicitated Angelia N Marweñ, a Post-Graduate student of Political Science Department, for being selected to represent Meghalaya in the upcoming Femina Miss India 2024 competition.

The programme which was held in the College Auditorium was attended by the College Faculty, Students and collaborators from Meepo Management.

The Principal in his speech lauded Ms Marweñ’s journey from a dedicated student to a multifaceted professional.

In her address, Marweñ expressed her gratitude to her classmates, teachers and the College for providing her a second family supporting throughout her journey. She also expressed her gratitude to carry the legacy of the College as she competes in the Femina Miss India 2024 pageant. It may also be mentioned that the winner of Femina Miss India 2024 will represent India at the 73rd edition of the Miss World pageant.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE PROGRAMME

