Notice

Decision on Reopening of Odd Semester Classes

Dear Professors, Staffs and Students,

After having considered the prevailing situation and the opinions and recommendations of the faculties of the college representing all its departments, the College has decided as follows with regard to the reopening of classes:

1. Classes will continue to be held in ONLINE mode for the entire month of September as per the timetable to be issued by the management.
2. The College will continue to monitor the situation and issue relevant notifications to all stakeholders regarding possibilities of starting offline classes.
3. Towards the end of September, outstation students are to begin making arrangements to shift to Shillong to attend offline classes. Further, they are to -
 - a. Ensure that they have already made arrangements for their accommodation in Shillong before coming
 - b. Vaccinate themselves
 - c. Undergo COVID Tests
 - d. Submit certificates of vaccination and tests to the management on the first day of attending classes.
4. In case there are indications of a surge in COVID Cases and/or a third wave, classes will continue in Online Mode until the situation improves.
5. Online Orientation Programmes and Commencement of Online Classes will be held as per the dates given below.

Event	Semesters	Dates
Orientation and Commencement of Classes	3 rd & 5 th Semesters	1 st September 2021
Orientation and Commencement of Classes	1 st Semesters	15 th September 2021
Orientation and Commencement of Classes	5 th Semester MCA	1 st September 2021

6. All are advised to follow the SOP and to avoid unnecessarily placing themselves and their family members in harm's way.

Sincerely,

Rev. Br. Dr. Albert L. Dkhar,
Principal.
