Report On Visit of Major Pankaj Bhattacharjee

On the 23rd of March, 2022, Major Pankaj Bhattacharjee visited St. Anthony's College, Shillong to interact with the NCC cadets of the college.

Major Pankaj Bhattacharjee of the 17 Mahar Regiment currently posted at the one of the toughest peaks of Siachen Glacier, was a sepoy when he joined the army. It was the zeal and support from his family that led to him becoming a Lieutenant after 3 years at Army Cadet College (ACC) and a year at the Indian Military Academy (IMA) where he was the Battalion Under Officer. After the completion of his training at the IMA, he was awarded with the President's Gold Medal in 2012 placing him amongst one of the meritorious cadets of the academy.

He motivated the cadets on the perks of having a career in Indian defense, gave a detailed overview of the SSB process and its standards with reference to his experiences, and also narrated various stories from his early days in the army to his NSG Commando days.

In short, the cadets enjoyed every minute of the conversation and were filled with high levels of motivation and zeal inside their hearts to never give up and accomplish their dreams.

A total of 115 cadets attended the programme.
