

Report: Social Awareness Program on Vocational Training

Date: 30th March 2022

Introduction:

The Social Awareness Program on Vocational Training held on the 30th of March 2022 at the Evening College of St. Anthony's College was a resounding success. Organized by the college, the event aimed to enlighten students about the importance of vocational training in today's competitive job market. The program was graced by the presence of esteemed speakers, Miss Senobia Lathong and Mr. Alphius Puwein from Don Bosco Technical School, who shared their valuable insights and experiences. Miss Emiba Thabah and Miss Wandabiang Nongrum provided crucial support in making the event a memorable one.

Program Highlights:

The program was attended by a total of 171 enthusiastic students from various disciplines, demonstrating their keen interest in enhancing their vocational skills. The event commenced with a warm welcome to the speakers and attendees, setting the tone for an informative and engaging session.

Speakers and their Contributions:

1.Miss Senobia Lathong: As a representative of Don Bosco Technical School, Miss Lathong delivered an insightful presentation on the significance of vocational training in shaping successful careers. She highlighted real-life success stories of individuals who had pursued vocational training and achieved remarkable feats in their respective fields. Miss Lathong's talk emphasized the practical aspects of vocational education and its direct relevance to the job market, inspiring the attendees to consider vocational training as a viable pathway.

2.Mr. Alphius Puwein: Mr. Puwein further enriched the program by sharing his expertise on the various vocational courses offered at Don Bosco Technical School. He provided a comprehensive overview of the programs, shedding light on the specialized training modules and hands-on experiences students could expect. His interactive session captivated the audience's attention and addressed their queries, instilling a sense of curiosity and enthusiasm among the students.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the Social Awareness Program on Vocational Training held at the Evening College of St. Anthony's College was a remarkable initiative that left a positive impact on the attendees. The insights shared by Miss Senobia Lathong and Mr. Alphius Puwein enlightened the students about the transformative potential of vocational training, while the support of Miss Emiba Thabah and Miss Wandabiang Nongrum ensured the event's success. We extend our gratitude to all participants for their active engagement and look forward to future endeavors aimed at empowering our students with valuable life skills.

Acknowledgments:

We extend our sincere appreciation to the speakers, Miss Senobia Lathong and Mr. Alphius Puwein, for their enlightening talks. Our heartfelt gratitude goes to Miss Emiba Thabah and Miss Wandabiang Nongrum for their exceptional support. Lastly, we thank the students of St. Anthony's College Evening College for their enthusiastic participation.
